Lacquered Steel Drum

These drums are coated internally with epoxy lacquer and are used for the packaging of food & fruits, pharmaceuticals, agrochemicals, pesticides, oleoresins, coil coating, fragrances & flavours, fine chemicals etc. where purity of the product is of paramount importance.

Lacquer lined drums coated with pigmented, buff, clear with phenolic epoxy lacquer are offered to suit customized requirements.

Tight Head/ Open Head Lacquer drums right from 0.8 mm to 1.50 mm thickness and various combinations of steel thicknesses are available and specific requirement of locking ring as per customer's choices can also be met.

Features & Benefits:

- Drums are subject to helium leak detection test to 100% leak-proof ness
- Special HGHH paints are used for a high-quality finish for the drums with customized screen printing.
- Triple seamed to give extra strength to the drums.
- Provision of UN Certification for hazardous products.